

ANMER CHURCH

CAROL SERVICE 2018

SUNDAY 23RD DECEMBER 4.00 PM

Dear All,

Apologies for this impersonal letter. And apologies for an early reminder of Christmas.

The Anmer Church Carol Service this year will take the usual popular form.

There will be familiar carols and the Christmas readings are presented by some of the children of the village (my daughter will be organising this but if you have volunteer do let me know!) and we then process off by a candle lit parade to the Social Club, for mulled wine and mince pies, and beer for those who prefer.

Thanks to Fred and the Social Club, as ever, for all their help.

We expect the church to be fuller than usual and, like last year, those who do not reserve seats may not be able to get in. And the police like to know we know who is coming. Sorry!

So, should you wish to come to the Carol Service which is to be held this year at 4.00 pm on SUNDAY the 23rd December it is important you let me know who will be coming and that you would like me to reserve a seat.

All Social Club members and/or parishioners are welcome and will be given priority. But could you very kindly telephone me and/or email me (njcolema@aol.com)? If you do I will reserve a place for you, your family and any guests you may wish to bring.

Thank you.

Best wishes,

Nick Coleman
